Baker and Mitchell Take Oath of Office

Washington, April 1.—Indictments were headed down today by the Federal Grand Jury against four men, two minor government officials, who have recently resigned, and two outsiders.

This action is the result of investigations conducted by the Department of Justice following revelations by the International Labor Bureau that a group of Wall Street speculators had been passing through a series of deals with the United States Supreme Court.

The four men were indicted on a charge of conspiracy to cheat and defraud the United States government in connection with the alleged leak of the United States Supreme Court regarding a suit of the United States.

Eighteen Bookkeeper Accused of Robbing Estates and Juggling Records

Daniel A. McDonald, a bookkeeper for the law firm of Henry & Samuel Eliot of No. 131 State street, was arrested today, charged with the larceny of $12,000 in cash from his employers.

The money was part of funds belonging to several large estates for which the firm is trustee.

McDonald was held in $10,000 bail.

Each of the five men was voted on individually.

Louis Waldman, who was described during the night's investigation as being a "Young Trotsky," was the first to be voted upon. He was expelled by a vote of 115 to 55.

August Claassen came second and the Assembly voted him by 115 to 55.

Charles Thompson was third and was expelled by the same vote, 115 to 55.

Definite charges of being disloyal had been made against these three and overt acts cited. One of the charges against Thompson was that he had been seen to spit on the American flag.

"ENEMY TO WHITE LAWS."

No definite charges were pending against Samuel D. J. and Samuel O. R., the remaining Socialists, other than the charge that they were party members who tried to aid in writing the laws of New York State. Because of this fact the majority in favor of their expulsion was slightly less, but both were ousted by vote of 104 to 40.

The vote was reached after nearly twenty-four hours of continuous debate.

He declared that General Allen, in command of the forces in Germany, has full power to police that territory. His only superior is the President of the United States, the President declared.

GEORGES EASY, HARD COAL GOES SAYS JOHNSON

Ex-Champion Declares Carpenter Will Lose to First American He Meets

Martinez, Mex., April 1.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, has started "boasting it back."

"I am under contract with a big American fight syndicate today which calls for three fights, the final one for the championship," Johnson declared today.

"Carpenter? I've worked with the French boy lot of times. The first American fighter that meets him will beat him sure."

"It's foolish it seems like, to tout him as a contender for the championship and to tote over here from France to meet the champion. Why, every American fighter that ever won a French whippet Carpenter as soon as they met. In the French navy ever meet anybody before he was in the ring? He was in the ring, because Carpenter won't be a drawing card any more."

"He's fairly clever, yes. Just fair. He can hit a little, and that you've said it. I've seen him fight in Paris several times and worked with him myself. I believe I know. He would be a pit for me, and I hope to meet him after I get a crack at Fulton."

"There's the best man in the States today—Fred Fulton. They say look at Dempsey. I'd like to look at him in the ring and I expect to some day after I've met Fulton and Carpenter."

"I am going to come back, not only in the fight world but with the government of the United States. Fred Fulton, I am going to return to the United States and fight for the fight for proof of my innocence. I am a free man and I am a free man."

REPRIMANDED BY COURT FOR ARRESTING 2 GIRLS

Commissioner James Reprimanded Patrolman Thomas E. Murphy of South Boston in the U. S. District Court today for arresting two girls, Anna and Mary, and for taking them to the police station.

The girls were discharged. The patrolman was warned that in future he must first procure a search warrant before he can stop anyone on the street to make a search.

According to his testimony Murphy stopped the girls on Broadway, South Boston, and took them to the police station. He asked them what they had in the article and the girls told him that it was clean. They were asked to open the bags, but they refused.

Then, according to the patrolman's story, the girls were forced to open them. The girls then placed the bags on the ground and Murphy took them, found a quart of wine in each. He took the girls to the station, where they were held for four hours until released.

CHILD NEGLECT CHARGE AMAZES

Charlestown Parents to Be Tried April 10; Case 'Worst' in Agent's Experience

Brutal, dirty and emaciated, extending in indescribable aqualor, seven-year-old Charles Dale was rescued from a closet in which he had been confined in his father's home on Manumet street, Charlestown. The alms, incredible circumstances of the alleged neglect are told by the father.

Curled up on a hard bed, the boy had lived for months in the poverty ventilated closet. It was declared, the case constituting the worst evidence of neglect ever seen by an agent of the M. S. P. C. C.

As a result of the finding of the boy by Mrs. Marie H. Rockwood, agent for the society, his father, Augustus Dale, and his step-mother, Bridget, will be tried for neglect on April 10.

In the meantime, Charles and his eight-year-old sister Mary, who was permitted to go to school, have been placed in the Homes for Destitute Catholic Children in the custody of Mrs. Rockwood.

According to the police, little Charles has never been permitted to attend school, that each day was passed in the unventilated closet while Dale and his wife went out to work.

When discovered by the amazed
Mrs. Rockwood and Captain Michael Duff of the Charlestown division, the child was alleged to be in a pitiable condition. They said that his body was covered with bruises, black and blue spots and a crust of filth, while the hair on one side of his head had been rubbed off. It was believed that in crying himself to sleep the boy had rubbed his head on the coarse burrap, causing his hair to fall out.

PRINTERS OUT ON MONITOR

24 Walk Out in Protest Against Attitude of Trustees: 19 Are Scientists

Twenty-four of the fifty-one composing room employees of the Christian Science Monitor went on strike to protest against the attitude of the trustees of the publishing company in their litigation with the church directors.

The strikers included Foreman Anne Weston, Day Foreman Walter Newcomer, Advertising Copy Foreman William Owen and others who have been with the publication since the start.

Most of the twenty-four were professed Christian Scientists, and bitter in their condemnation of the stand of the trustees.

They declare that the trustees are defying the church manual in conducting the church publications without consulting the directors, and that of the twenty-seven who remained at their benches not more than one-half are interested in Christian Science as a religion.

Notwithstanding the walkout, the trustees were able to get the paper out, and declare that they will continue to do so.

It was understood today that the trustees had appealed to the local office of the Typographical Union for aid to replace the strikers.

This was taken to mean that the publishing company was about to depart from its lifelong policy and recognize labor unions, which have been barred from all departments of the publication.

It was stated today that as the men who remained at their benches were not permitted that "now was the time to get the union into the shop."

Secretary J. McBride, president of the Boston Local No. 43 of the Typographical Union, said today that the trustees had "approached" him regarding this to replace the strikers.

Following a conference with the executive committee of the union he prepared an agreement which was presented to the trustees for their signature.

John H. Watts, general manager of the Christian Science Publishing Society, advised negotiations with the union heads, but intimated that the union officials took the initiative.

SENATOR DONOVAN BOOSTS TENANTS' LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP

Unable to crowd into the Walnut Avenue Schoolhouse in Revere to attend the mass meeting of the Boston American Tenant's League, over 5,000 residents of Revere stood in the streets outside of the building for three hours last night listening to a discussion of the rent problem. The gathering cheered lustily when Representative Martin Hays of Brighton explained the various provisions of his rent bill, now before the Legislature, and told of his efforts to have the heads of the executive, judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth hold a conference on the rent situation.

A torchlight procession through the principal thoroughfares of Revere was a feature of the affair. This was to have taken place before the meeting, but in order that Representative Hays might be heard was postponed until afterwards.

Representative Hays and the other and its work in awakening the entire Commonwealth to the necessity for drastic anti-rent profiteering legislation. The Revere Tenant's League had previously induced the parent organization, and enrolled in a body. President Gilmer of the Revere Tenant's League, chairman of the Revere branch of the Boston American Tenant's League, presided at the meeting.

Senator Andrew Cassassa, Representative Herbert Gruttschell, Councilman Hittler and Louis E. Gilman were other speakers. All praised the efforts of the Boston American Tenant's League, and all promised to bring about suitable rent legislation and hearty indorse the measure advocated by Representative Hays. Plans were made for the appointment of a committee of representatives to the Legislature to support it.

Join Tenants' League and Insure Fair Rents!

If you live in a fair deal for tenants and landlords sign the following and mail to Rent Editor, Boston American, 80 Summer Street, Boston 5, Mass.:

Please enroll me as a member of the Boston American Tenant's League of Massachusetts. I am opposed to profiteering in real estate, and am in favor of the Hays bill to end such profiteering. Membership in the League shall assure my moral support, but shall involve no financial obligations.

Name.....

Street.....

City or Town.....

The Boston American does not intend to publish the names of Tenant's League members.

With a committee of landlords on the rent situation in Revere. The League is manifesting extraordinary interest in the big mass meeting to be held under the auspices of Mayor William P. White in the City Hall there tomorrow evening. Mayor White will preside and a number of the leading citizens will speak. Representative Hays will explain the provisions of his bill, and Lawrence branch of the League will be formed.

Mayor White has already taken the lead among the municipal executives of the state in applying measures for the relief of tenants who are suffering at the hands of rent profiteers. The selection of Natick have gone on record as in favor of the provisions of the Hays bill, and have instructed their Representatives in the Legislature to support it. Plans are being made by Donovan to form a branch of the Tenant's League.

Senator Thomas P. Donovan of the Fourth Suffolk District went in a batch of city enrollments in the League, with the following commendatory letter:

MOKE JOIN RENT LEAGUE.

"Enclosed find city enrolled members in the Boston American Tenant's League. The enclosed applicants have turned over their applications to me, and I am very glad to forward them to you, and also wish to take this opportunity of saying that as a member of the State Senate, representing a district made up largely of rent payers, that I commend your stand in this most vital matter, affecting as it does the home life of our people."

"Please say for me in your columns that the Peabody Club of Ward 4, Boston, with a membership of 350, heartily indorses this movement."

Communications reaching the rent editor from every city and town in the Commonwealth daily show the great interest being taken in the growth and activities of the League. Here is a letter from Alderman George W. Tainter of Medford:

"I certainly believe your paper is doing a great deal of good by giving the rent profiteering subject plenty of advertising, and as chairman of the profiteering committee of the board of Aldermen, would like to see his results from you. So keep up."

the good work." All the power of government and of the Legislature should be exerted against profiteering landlords. Mayor White will preside at a meeting of his recently appointed committee on rents and housing.

The committee was in the Council chamber of City Hall, but almost every speaker was a property owner, which prompted one man, a non-property owner, to refer to the meeting as a "mutual admiration" society.

It was truthfully a convulsion of landlords, who spoke for a period of two hours and a half, in which time only one tenant was present. One of these was a woman who had been unable to meet a committee of increase of rent and was served with a notice to quit. She was taken up by the committee today at headquarters at No. 1 Beacon street.

START-OWNERS HOUSES.

That the State should finance buildings for families, that a number of lodging houses be established to shelter evicted tenants, that insurance be restrained for five years, that a law be passed providing that no notice be given to quit until October 1 and April 1, except for a special case, were some of the suggestions at the meeting.

Mayor Potts attended the meeting just long enough to make an address, and left to attend another engagement. With the promise that he would gladly hear complaints from both landlords and tenants.

Dr. William C. Woodward, Commissioner of Health and a member of the committee, thought the Octavia Hill system employed in England, by which old dwellings are made over under a co-operative plan, should be considered here.

Philip Dugan of No. 48 Appleton street, Boston, who is a member of the League, said that he had been in carrying out suggested improvements, such as widening streets, and that the first duty of the committee was to go out and investigate conditions instead of waiting for complaints.

Edwin M. White of No. 217 Hemenway street showed how, as a landlord, he had to sit still and make no move, and complained of excessive assessments of property in Boston.

"You cannot blame the landlord," said Henry Lawton of No. 7 Court street. "He tries to get as much as possible and give as little as he can."

C. E. Russell of 1034 street, Jamaica Plain, spoke of the "landlord" which puts up prices of all commodities should be "cut after."

"The Government should after the high price combinations first," he said.

"BOUQUETS" FOR LANDLORDS. Mrs. Frank W. Page of Boston and Belmont, Massachusetts secretary of the Housewives' League, told of families who had to give up their apartments in the Back Bay and go into furnished rooms when unable to meet 40 per cent. rent jumps. She suggested a municipal lodging house for evicted families.

Mr. John W. Johnson of Boston said the trouble was not so much in the high cost of living as with the cost of high living. "The people might well fill the municipal," he added.

"They ought to throw bouquets at the landlord," said Francis S. Pawell, a Dorchester property owner.

Mr. Powell said that house-ownership is a business and not an investment and should be maintained as such.

Attorney Berak of Dorchester said he knew of one dwelling changing hands eight times in the last few months and every new ownership brought a jump in rent. He said there is no use of talking about replacement value because a house is as old as it is.

George J. Nickerson, another Boston attorney, said: "The committee can no more regulate rents than I can regulate the price of the Boston American. The only way to deal with it is to cut it out."

LAW CURB RENT PROFIITEERS

Tenants Are Protected by New York Acts and Increases Are Limited

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—Gibson bills designed to curb rent profiteering became laws today when Governor Smith signed them. They provide that:

1. When a landlord seeks to elect a tenant on the plea that he is objectionable he must satisfy the court that the tenant actually is.

2. Where the agreement between landlord and tenant does not specify the length of lease it shall hold until October 1 next.

3. The notice to vacate, now limited to twenty days, is extended to thirty.

4. In case of holdovers where a landlord has defaulted on payment of taxes or other obligations, the tenant may deposit his rent with the Clerk of the Court or the presiding justice if required.

5. A judge, called upon to determine whether or not a tenant shall be evicted is empowered to determine the amount of rent due and the money damages.

6. The law granting the landlord a double penalty where a tenant holds over without consent of a lease or license is repealed.

7. Pending a dispossession proceeding a Justice of the Municipal Court may grant a maximum stay of six months.

8. A code provision is created, harmonizing the dispossession proceedings with the recent legislation.

9. The same defenses allowed in summary proceedings may be set up in an action of ejectment.

10. Rent increases are limited to 25 per cent. a year.

11. Willful failure on the part of a landlord to provide water, light, heat or power or whatever other services are contracted for in the lease shall constitute a misdemeanor.

EXPECT HOOVER HUNT VETERAN TO SPLIT G. O. P. OF TWO WARS

Politicians Predict Another 1912 Campaign With Call-formian in Roosevelt Role

Washington, April 1.—Republican opposition to the candidacy of Herbert Hoover for the presidential nomination at Chicago has risen to such a pitch here that it was freely predicted today around political headquarters that 1912 will be repeated with the former food administrator playing the role of Theodore Roosevelt in a rump convention. The Republicans "old guard" look emphatically that Hoover can never be nominated on any ticket that has anything to do with. The Johnsons are violently opposed to a candidacy because of his stand on the League of Nations, while the Wood crowd fully shared their derision when the name of Hoover was mentioned in their presence.

In short, the combined cohorts of the Republican party are preparing for a descent upon Hoover which will make the avianlike which struck Colonel Roosevelt at Chicago in 1912 look like child's play. That much is admitted. The question politicians are asking themselves is now will Hoover meet the onslaught and what form will his counter attack take?

One of the answers given is by splitting the party and holding a rump convention. Some Republicans profess to believe that Hoover is already aware of it and cannot win the nomination and that his real aim is a party division with himself as leader of the seceding faction, counting upon the Democratic party to furnish him with sufficient votes to win the election in a three-cornered fight.

The formation of a third party with Hoover at its head is receiving serious consideration here by both Republicans and Democrats. Such a party, it is admitted, would be at the expense of both, as the latest votes conclusively proved.

Johnson Accuses Hoover of "Flopping" on League

New York, April 1.—Herbert Hoover was accused by United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of having abruptly changed his attitude toward the Wilson League of Nations covenant the moment he became a active candidate for the presidential nomination.

The charge was made at a meeting of the women's division of the Johnsons for president committee at Carnegie Hall. The Golden State candidate, by resolution and in speech, was lauded as the "woman's favorite" for Woodrow Wilson's successor.

An oration was also given Mrs. Johnson, who sat in a box and witnessed publicly the tribute of her sisters to her husband.

MANY VACANCIES FOR OFFICERS IN U. S. ARMY

There are 993 vacancies for officers in the infantry of the U. S. Army; 727 in the medical corps, 425 in the cavalry, 312 in the coast artillery; 231 in the field artillery, 105 in the engineering corps and 91 are needed for chaplains in addition.

James L. Ryan, Missing for Third Time, Has Been Gone Since February

Mr. Honora Ryan of Lynn today appeared to the Boston American for assistance in locating her husband, Captain James L. Ryan, a world war veteran, who she says has been missing since February. The Ryans have four children, and the youngest, Mary, three years old, has become ill through grief at the continued absence of her father, according to the mother.

Ryan told his wife he was going to be home. He said gave her the name of a firm at that place as his future employer. The wife wrote to the firm and received a reply that no person of Captain Ryan's description was working for it.

Mrs. Ryan told a representative of the American that she placed much importance on a letter signed "Maudie" and containing a woman's picture which she found in her husband's trunk. The picture was forwarded to the Schenectady, N. Y., police and they identified the woman as one who was active in war camp work.

This is Ryan's third disappearance, according to his wife. The first was last October, but he was gone only a short time. In November he left without saying where he was going, she said, but returned to his family.

Ryan was a veteran of both the Spanish-American and World War. Police and army headquarters in the Eastern States have been furnished a description of the missing man.

The Lynn branches of the American Legion and the Spanish War Veterans are assisting in the search. The Lynn police forwarded a photograph of Ryan to the War Department.

Ryan is 41 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighed about 165 pounds.

HE DARKENED HIS GRAY HAIR

Tells How He Did It

Mr. J. A. McGee, a well-known resident of San Francisco, who was called laddy and Grandpa on account of his white hair, and when he darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. In a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Rivalin Compound and 1/2 ounce of glycerine.

"These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

ARREST FACES JINNEY DRIVERS IN QUINCY

Chief of Police Goodhue of Quincy has sent a warning to Jinney drivers in surrounding towns that they are not welcome in Quincy. Regardless of what their license call for in those towns, he said, they would not be permitted to operate in Quincy, and any attempt to do so would result in their arrest. William J. McCarthy, who has been operating a Jinney between Weymouth and Quincy, pleaded guilty in Quincy court today to two charges of violating Quincy's anti-Jinney rule. He was ordered to pay the costs of his case, amounting to about $40 and placed on probation until May 1.

Admiral Fullam Says He Sent Preparedness Ideas to Secretary's Assistant

By International News Service.
Washington, April 1.—"The United States navy escaped disaster during war in spite of its unpreparedness, only because the German fleet was bottled up," Admiral William F. Fullam declared today before the Senate committee investigating the navy. Admiral Fullam commanded the Pacific reserve fleet before the war and is now retired.

"It was not the policy of the Navy Department to prepare for war, or even to encourage such preparedness," Fullam said, referring to the navy's program from 1915 to 1917.

Fullam said he addressed his recommendations for preparedness to Assistant Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt because "Secretary Daniels was not interested."

"I had a constant struggle to get anything done by the department," Fullam said.

In the years just preceding our entry into war, Fullam declared, the navy "was fatal at all of men."

In 1914-15, Fullam pointed out, "the importance of preparing for war was apparently the last thing considered. The Navy Department was so fully occupied with the routine of peace."

GRANITE CUTTERS REJECT WAGE SCALE

The Quincy branch of the Granite Cutters International Association has rejected a proposed wage scale. The new schedule, passed after a conference of quarry workers a representative of the cutters association, would increase the cutters pay from $10 a week to $21 an hour beginning about July 1. Quarry cutters seek an immediate increase.

He found a $10 enclosed for $4 the factory's share in the cost of the shoes and refused to pay the store's price of $12.

do say that there isn't another stock of boys' clothes in the city that can hold a candle to ours—in size or variety, in style or quality, in attractiveness or value-giving.
Especially the value-giving. They all bear down on that point. All of which makes us very happy indeed, and more than ever determined to keep up the good work.

Pick out your Spring Hat early this week

Come before Saturday if you can. We want to give you all the time and attention that your case requires. Getting the right hat consists of something more than merely getting the right size, and it's that something more that we want you to have.

We've all kinds of hats except two—poor ones and old ones. We've styles for married men and single men, old men and young men, progressives and standpatters, plutocrats and proletarians.

We notice that other hat places quote about the same prices we do. But that doesn't mean that they give you as much quality for the money. They're not giving more, that's a cinch.

What would you do if your husband left you on a ranch with three babies?

ONE day a happy wife and loving mother—the next, deserted and miserable. What made Chaddie McKail's husband suddenly leave her? And what was the secret in his past life that only his pretty cousin knew? Can you imagine what you would do if your husband left you? Would you consider yourself still bound to him?

And if another man fell in love with you, how would you deal with him? Would you dare to do what Chaddie did? And how would you treat the other woman? Don't miss a line of Arthur Stringer's story, an intimate revelation of the workings of a woman's soul—

The "PRAIRIE MOTHER" by ARTHUR STRINGER

A sequel to "The PRAIRIE WIFE"

Have women any real creative genius?
Or have men a monopoly? How does the feminine mind differ from that of man? And were Rosa Bonheur, George Eliot and Mme. Curie abnormal? Is the bearing of children the only "creative" ability women possess?

Dr. Kristine Mann, one of America's most distinguished women physicians, answers these questions in a surprising manner in Pictorial Review for April. Dr. Mann was appointed to supervise the health and moral welfare of the Government's thousands of women war workers and certainly knows what she's talking about.

What is a home-made president?
Seventeen million women will vote for President at the next election. Think of the enormous political power they will wield.

How are women going to use this new power? Will they take full advantage of it, not? Indications point to their complete rejection of a machine-made President. Ida Clyde Clark explains exactly why the women of America demand a home-made President.

Little Tigers at Goldsboro, N. C., Count Knotted When Jones Went Bad.

By NICK FLATLEY.

Goldsboro, N. C., April 1.—Older Stanley never found any danger place in Africa than D. M. Jones has discovered in this part of the universe. We are playing the place today, with the accent on a first syllable.

The inhabitants haven't seen any Indians down to a word, and on the contrary the natives assert they still in one way or another. The exhibition had on a y-thrills except for the fact that it was one of those "light" shows the Braves in the United States since 1900.

For the past four years the have been trying to make money in the Greenbush. It is a time on the way this party dropped down and overtook them. They are now in a state of play and a word of weather but the Braves are still to play any
